

King's life is celebrated

JAN 5 1990

Area residents remember the life and death of one of the nation's most cherished civil rights leaders, Martin Luther King Jr. On Sunday, members of the Easton Area Branch of the NAACP came to the Grace Baptist Church in Phillipsburg to celebrate King's achievements. Above, members of the NAACP Youth Choir sing gospel selections. Right, in a re-enactment of a scene from a play performed earlier at the church, Tony Harrison reminds two youngsters of blacks' struggle for freedom in America. Members of the NAACP youth group also took part in readings on such heroic black figures as Frederick Douglas, Harriet Tubman and Rosa Parks.
